

Thank you for your interest in Speer Family BBQ. We are thrilled that you are seeking our services and look forward to contributing to a memorable event. I have attached a general menu and pricing sheet for your reference here (attached to this email). Speer Family BBQ provides a unique on-site catering service (dependent on your event location) but also provide pick up and delivery as well.

I'd love to get to know a little bit more about your event to ensure we can execute it to the best of our ability. Can you please let me know the following:

- date of event
- time and location/venue
- number of attendees
- on site/pick up/delivery
- additional services needed

After you've taken a peek at the menu, please let me know your food choices and quantities and I can draft a formal proposal for your review. Should you like to discuss a more customized package, please let us know and we'd be happy to put something together for you.
